Winner scratches her way to $100,000 windfall

REGINA (AUG. 5, 2020) — It was far from just another day for Francis' Ashley Nargang when she picked up a $5 FUN AND GAMES ZING ticket.

Nargang was interested in scratching a ticket she hadn't seen before when she purchased the FUN AND GAMES ticket back in March from the Sedley Country Convenience Store at 315 Railway Ave. in Sedley. She was floored when she learned that trying out the new game netted her the ticket's top prize – $100,000!

"I was shocked, I couldn't stand up," she laughed. "I called my mom and boyfriend and they came to the store right away."

Nargang said she already has ideas for what she'll do with the windfall, including paying off a car loan. She also wants to take her mom for a spa day — the ticket was purchased on her mother's birthday — and share some winnings with others that are close to her.

"Dad needs new tires," she mused. "And I'll treat my boyfriend to something as well."
