Record-breaking Friday: Estimated $120 million in total LOTTO MAX prizes

Top prizes include $70 million main jackpot and 50 MAXMILLIONS (est.) on June 11 draw

SASKATOON (JUNE 9, 2021) — The LOTTO MAX jackpot has rolled for the seventh draw in a row! This Friday's LOTTO MAX jackpot is $70 million, plus an estimated 50 MAXMILLIONS draws for $1 million each.

The $70 million main jackpot wasn't won last night, but 23 of the 47 MAXMILLIONS prizes were won or shared by 28 winning tickets sold across Canada – six of which were sold in the Prairie provinces!

This Friday's draw offers an estimated total of $120 million in top prizes in a single night; a new record for a Canadian lottery game, beating out the previous LOTTO MAX record – set last night – by three million dollars!

Lottery players can buy their tickets until 8:30 pm on the evening of the draw at Lotto Spot retailers. In addition to being available at retail, all WCLC draw-based games are available for online purchase at SubscriptionSpot.ca. If you are buying tickets in-store, please be sure to follow public health orders, and keep safety a top priority.

Players can check their tickets at lottery retailers starting the morning after the draw. Tickets can also be checked on your smartphone by downloading the WCLC Lotto Spot! app for iOS and Android, or visiting sasklotteries.ca to find the all the latest winning numbers.
